Ancient Egypt

Sam Childers, Pontotoc, MS

Egyptian civilization dates back to about 5000 BC. The Nile was the main water source for Egyptians. Without it, people would not be able to farm. Pharaohs were kings of Egypt. The people thought of pharaohs as gods since the god Amum-Ra was the first pharaoh. Pharaohs were mummified then buried in great pyramids, with all of their treasures. Pharaoh Tutankhamen was said to be the richest pharaoh of all. Archaeologist Howard Carter found Tutankhamen, but was killed afterward by an insect bite. That started the rumors of mummy curses. Egyptians believed in an afterlife, Osiris, god of the dead, would take you to get to the after life.

Cave Paintings

Maria Guerra, San Jose, CA

Cave paintings were fist discovered in France in the late 1800's. These remarkable and fascinating works of art were made by the early Cro-Magnons (or cavemen). To make these paintings, the Cro-Magnons would first sketch an animal or object important to them. Then they would crush coal and various colored rocks, mixing them with saliva, and the "paint" would be carefully sputtered onto the cave wall, into the object design. Some cave paintings were big, small, told a story, not colored, or shone with bright colors, but all helped scientists discover extinct animals of the Stone Age.

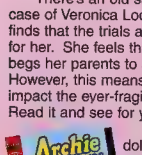
EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

There's an old saying: "The grass always looks greener on the other side," and in the case of Veronica Lodge, this seems to fit. In a story entitled "Room and Bored," Veronica finds that the trials and tribulations of going to a public school is proving to be too much for her. She feels that she would be better off at a private boarding school. Veronica begs her parents to send her to Mrs. Lodge's alma mater, a school for the very rich. However, this means leaving all her friends at Riverdale High. How will this move impact the ever-fragile, famous love triangle between Betty, Veronica and Archie? Read it and see for yourself in VERONICA #139, on sale next month.



A wealthy Riverdale High graduate's will leaves a five million dollar grant to the school. But, to receive it, Riverdale's baseball team has to defeat their arch-rival, Central High. The pressure builds, the game starts and when the dust clears, Riverdale loses. However, when Betty reads the fine print in the will, she realizes that the next day's softball game counts, too. Will the girls "step up to the plate" and show the boys how it's done, or will they strike out as well? Don't miss "Where There's a Will...there's $$$," in the upcoming issue of ARCHIE & FRIENDS #70.

All you SONIC THE HEDGEHOG fans out there, listen up! Produced in the tradition of the Archie Americana Series, SONIC THE HEDGEHOG, THE BEGINNING, a high-quality trade paperback, will be available this summer. Reproduced in this book is the first four-issue mini-series, numbers 0-3. Also included is a foreword by Yuji Naka, President/CEO of the team that created Sonic The Hedgehog. This book will definitely be a collector's item. I'll keep you updated as to the actual on sale date.

Another trade paperback scheduled for release this summer is BETTY & VERONICA SUMMER FUN. This edition is a collection of some of the best classic Betty & Veronica stories to ever hit the beach. It will be a great addition to your collection, and it makes a nice gift, too! Stay tuned for more updates.
